Girls' Adventures in Math (GAIM) is a team-based Math Competition for girls in grades 3-8. If you're excited by the idea of creative, strategic, out-of-the-box problem-solving, GAIM will rock your socks off!

GAIM Ithaca @ Cornell University
April 29th, 2018, 2:30PM - 5:30PM
317 Gates Hall, Ithaca, NY 14853 USA
$79/Team, Financial Aid Available*

GAIM consists of a 60-minute, 16-question Math Competition in Round 1 and a 20-minute research question in Round 2. The students then convene for an afternoon of strategy games and a rip-roaring math party.

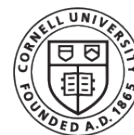

Each school may enroll up to four teams of four girls. Each team can be registered in one of two divisions:

Upper Elementary (grades 3-5)
Middle Division (grades 6-8)
